

MARIE-LOUISE BECH NOSCH

KEYNOTE LECTURE

17/02/2014

ANIMAL FIBRES AND PLANT FIBRES IN MYCENAEAN TEXTS

WHAT ARE THE ADMINISTRATIVE DIFFERENCES AND THE PRACTICAL RAMIFICATIONS?

LECTURE: 18.00
TOPOI BUILDING DAHLEM
HITTORFSTR. 18
14195 BERLIN

ORGANIZER
A-4 THE TEXTILE REVOLUTION
chiara.schoch@topoi.org

Marie-Luise Bech Noch is an internationally renowned historian who specialises in ancient history and one of the leading experts in the field of textile research. She is professor at the University of Copenhagen and Director of the associated Centre for Textile Research.

The keynote lecture is part of the workshop »Fibre Distinction« from 17th until 18th february promoted by research group A-4 led by Prof. Wolfram Schier.